

son blvd., and Chicago Picture Frame Works, 2414 W. 20th st., bankrupt.

Joseph Lode, 21, 2012 Allport st., and Anthony Patek, 33, 2012 Allport st., seriously burned by benzine explosion at Nicholas Preib Cleaning and Dyeing Co., 4224 W. Madison st.

Trial of Otto Schultz for murder of Otto Schaffner begun.

Chicago winds best aid to health, according to Prof. Henry J. Cox of weather bureau.

Judge Scully says that aiding helpless boys in court would do more good than large donations to wealthy universities.

Three promoters of Lake Shore Tango Club summoned to appear in court. Deputy sheriff trying to serve Mrs. Potter Palmer and other millionaires.

Thomas C. Skryzewski, 1182 Milwaukee av., arrested for disorderly conduct. Sang new version of national hymn and demanded jury trial. Got it.

Mrs. Pauline Hubert owed $33 board bill. Offered Robert, one year old, as security. Mrs. Rudolph Peterson, 2937 E. End av., accepted pledge.

Alexander Exmer, 282 W. North av., made improper advances to May Putira, 15. Arrested as disorderly.

Mrs. Clara Abbott, 2344 N. Kedvale av., turned on gas. Mrs. Abbott and her mother, Caroline Smith, found unconscious. Revived. Woman put under $5,000 peace bond.

Eugene Stewart wants accounting from former partner, John L. Bolen.

Christopher Altergodd, 4421 N. Kenton av., fined $100 for "gun-totting."

$50,000 damage suit filed by John Carten, freight handler, against I. C. Railroad for loss of legs. Man was injured by fall of flywheel.

Twelve private banks failed since 1912. $1,500,000 gone. Bankers demand law that would protect public from private institutions.

Miss Anna Olsen, a saleswoman at The Fair, has filed a $30,000 damage suit against The Fair Co. She claims she was permanently injured by an accident at the store New Year's Day.

Charles Salquist found unconscious on Anthony av. Man refuses to tell cause of injury.

Thomas C. Hansen, former Burns operative, arrested for alleged bribery plot in Omaha.

Charles Amundson, 1151 W. Grand av., held in connection with death of Martin Harry.

John Wojicek, 2040 W. Huron st., unemployed, stole milk for wife and babies. Judge Sabath gave man $2 and dismissed charge.

Case of Omar C. Harris, charged with operating an employment agency without a license continued 11th time.

Frank Euler met Jacob Benjamin and invested $4,800 in new University of Wisconsin. Benjamin held for operating confidence game.

Twenty-two witnesses examined by Kane county grand jury in Theresa Hollander murder.

Charles Norton, salesman, found suffering from smallpox. Quarantined in passenger coach near Aurora.

Miss Bertha Diggs and Mrs. Harry Highland, 740 E. 36th st., quarreled. Mrs. Highland used jui jitsu. Held for disorderly conduct.

Weeden Barber College, 1250 W. Madison st., shut by board of health. Unsanitary.

August Boden, 901 Belmont av., fined $100 for molesting girl.

FEMININE FACTS

Mrs. Eugene T. Senseney is assistant prosecuting attorney in St. Louis.

The Housewives' League of Morgantown, W. Va., is trying to secure sanitary butcher shops.

Professor Emily C. Balch, head of the department of political economy of Wellesley College, is a member of the Boston city planning board.

Delegates from more than 100 women's societies in Chicago will take part in the Goethe monument dedication services, June 13, at Lincoln Park.